

Football Administrative Policy

Effective date 9-10-08

1. Director of Football shall be selected by majority vote of the board based on previous contributions to the program, interest, and organizational ability. Interested persons should apply to the board verbally or in writing.
2. Commissioners of each age group shall be selected by the majority of the board members present at the meeting.
3. Commissioners of each age group shall select coaches as necessary based on information provided on signup sheets. Persons who coached previously shall be given first preference.
4. Each team may have no more than two kids protected from the draft. Ideally, the two protected players should be children of the head coach and one of the assistant coaches. After the draft, each coach may select as many assistant coaches as deemed necessary.
5. Draft of the remaining players shall be determined by the snake draft system with at least one board member present during the draft. If the board member present as a child involved, another board member must be present.
6. Additional players joining the league after the draft shall be assigned by the commissioner of the respective age group with approval from the Director of Football.
7. All previously established rules for football will be observed. No changes will be made to rules without the majority vote of the board.
8. If there are two coaches with 1st pick (only 1 child protected), a coin will be flipped to determine who gets the first pick.

Signed,

OYA Board of Directors

Mark Hancock, Chuck Marsh, Bucky McCulley, Abigail McDonald, Dean Moorhouse, and Kim Swafford
